

AMCI Adds Sales Rep in Pennsylvania, Kentucky, and Ohio Areas

Terryville, CT 05/01/2010 – Paul Davis Automation (PDA) is now representing Advanced Micro Controls Inc (AMCI) in the Ohio, Kentucky, and Western Pennsylvania areas.

AMCI has realized growth in the Ohio, Kentucky, and Western Pennsylvania areas, and recently added sales reps to better service the expanding market. AMCI's localized sales representatives have a deep knowledge base of AMCI products, and provide assistance with product selection and support. AMCI sales reps work with a large number of Allen-Bradley, Schneider, and GE distributors who together, will help customers and OEM's find the best solution for their application.

Paul and John Davis of Paul Davis Automation bring over twenty years of automation and process control experience to AMCI's Sales team. Paul Davis Automation will be looking into customer orders, promoting new AMCI products, and helping customers understand how AMCI control solutions can help them.
